Understanding New Zealand

We encourage you to use the first few months of living in Wellington, New Zealand to start familiarising yourself with your new surroundings. Try different foods and find out what's happening in the area.

Wellington is the capital city of New Zealand. Wellington is an experience that will reveal the creative, political and cultural nature of New Zealand, but still provide blockbuster scenery. Wellington is quite a compact city sandwiched between the edge of the water and the hills that surround the area. Exploring Wellington is easiest by walking and many of the attractions of Wellington are handy including Te Papa, the national museum. The city has a huge range of cafes, theatres, art galleries, attractions and a busy nightlife. The population of Wellington city is approximately 414,818.

A useful website that lists what's happening in Wellington for the year is:

www.eventfinda.co.nz

For information about New Zealand as a tourism destination, visit

www.newzealand.com/int

Climate The Wellington region offers a mild, temperate marine climate, with plenty of wind. The Wellington region is well known for being windy. The Cook Strait has a wind-funnelling effect, which leads to a high frequency of strong winds around the southern coast, and the rugged landscape results in local variations in wind direction and strength.

The best weather in Wellington is during October to April, when average temperatures are between 17°C and 21°C. Winter in Wellington is quite short and never extreme, with the occasional frosts.

The temperature in Wellington will rarely rise above 25°C (77°F), or drop below 6°C (43°F). Wellington is, however, known for its southerly winds in winter, which makes the temperature feel much colder. Frosts are commonly experienced in the hill suburbs and the Hutt Valley during winter, while snow is very rare.

Average High Temperature Ranges:

- Summer (Dec – Feb): Daytime 19°C – 21°C
- Autumn (Mar – May): Daytime 14°C – 19°C
- Winter (Jun – Aug): Daytime 6°C – 12°C
- Spring (Sep – Nov): Daytime 14°C– 17°C

On average, Wellington has 2025 hours (169 days) of sunshine per year. The average annual rainfall for Wellington is 1249 mm, with June and July being the wettest months.

Clothing Make sure you have some warm clothes such as sweaters, jackets, sweatshirts, trousers (jeans), socks, scarves and gloves for the cooler months. In the summer months (December - February), most students wear t-shirts, skirts, shorts, jeans or light cotton clothing. Although New Zealand students dress quite casually (informally), we suggest that you bring at least one formal outfit for any special occasions.

Telling the time New Zealand is one of the first places in the world to see the new day as it is 12 hours ahead of GMT (Greenwich Mean Time). In summer, New Zealand uses 'Daylight Saving', with clocks put forward one hour to GMT+13. Daylight Savings begins on the last Sunday in September and ends on the first Sunday of the following April, when clocks are put back to GMT+12.

Food Wellington has a variety of places where you can find familiar food. You can easily find food in supermarkets and dairies/corner stores/7-11. The amount you spend on food depends on what you include in your trolley/basket. You will find fresh fruit and vegetables, grains, meat, fish and poultry in supermarkets or even the local markets.

Electricity and accessories Electricity is supplied throughout New Zealand at 230/240 volts, 50 hertz. Power outlets only accept flat three or flat two-pin plugs, depending on whether an earth connection is fitted. Small appliances are not expensive in New Zealand (e.g. hair dryers, clock-radios etc) so we recommend you buy them when you arrive.

Religion Wellington has churches, temples, mosques, synagogues and centres of worship for most religions. New Zealand observes most Christian holidays, but there are celebrations for other religious holidays held within the community too.

Holidays We recommend you don't plan to travel home during the academic year (unless absolutely necessary). When you book your return flight, make sure it is after the end of your programme. TLC is mostly closed on Saturdays and Sundays during mid-term breaks, and is closed on all public holidays, including a three week period around Christmas. However, during term time, it is open most weekends for weekend classes.

Sporting and recreational facilities Rugby is very popular in New Zealand, but many other sports have a large following, such as cricket, soccer, rowing, netball and basketball. Sports and being active in the outdoors is an important part of life in New Zealand. The wide open spaces and national parks have influenced New Zealanders' love of outdoor activities. Tramping (hiking) camping and skiing are all popular activities. There are hundreds of beaches, ideal for swimming and diving.

Social and cultural activities New Zealanders come from many ethnic backgrounds including Māori, European, Asian and Pacific Islands. Various social and cultural events are celebrated throughout the year. These events include concerts, operas, art exhibitions, food and wine festivals, Asian festivals, Māori cultural gatherings and many others. Visit <https://www.eventfinda.co.nz/whatson/events/wellington> for information on local events.

New Zealand law and You Whilst you are living in New Zealand, you must observe New Zealand law. If you break New Zealand law, there may be serious consequences for you, such as having a conviction, being sentenced to prison, or having your student visa revoked and being sent back to your home country. At your orientation programme we will tell you about some of the laws in New Zealand. If you find yourself in trouble while you are here, services can be provided to you and information is readily available through International Services. The New Zealand Police are very honest, friendly and will endeavour to help you.

Road Rules In New Zealand we drive on the left-hand side of the road. For all information regarding the NZ Road Code, please visit nzta.govt.nz/resources/roadcode

Driving in New Zealand You can legally drive in New Zealand for up to 12 months if you have either a current driver's licence from your home country or an International Driving Permit (IDP). After 12 months you are required to convert to a New Zealand licence. Make sure your driver's licence is current. If your licence is not in English, you must bring an English translation with you or obtain an IDP. A translation of your overseas licence or permit can be issued by: • the New Zealand Translation Service, or • a diplomatic representative at a high commission, embassy or consulate, or the authority that issued your overseas licence (an International Driving Permit may be acceptable as a translation). The common legal age to rent a car in New Zealand is 21 years.

Currency New Zealand's unit of currency is the New Zealand dollar (NZD). Coins have values of 10, 20 and 50 cents and $1 and $2. Notes have values of $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100. There is no restriction on the amount of foreign currency that can be brought in or taken out of New Zealand, however every person who carries more than NZ$10,000 in cash in to, or out of New Zealand is required to complete a Border Cash Report. Foreign currency can easily be exchanged at banks, New Zealand Post shops, some hotels and bureau de change kiosks, which are found at international airports and most city centres. All major credit cards can be used in New Zealand. Travellers cheques are accepted at hotels, banks and some stores. We recommend that you carry small amounts of cash and use bank cards for your transactions.

Opening a bank account Every bank offers a range of accounts – from high transaction to savings accounts - but they may have special conditions for international students. Some banks have multilingual staff to help you. Once you have decided which bank would be your best option, opening an account is a simple process. You will need to fill out some paperwork, and the bank will ask you to provide proof of a permanent address. Usually photographic identification such as a passport or a driver's licence will also be required. Most banks will have an account operating for new customers within two days.

Tax The Inland Revenue Department (IRD) is employed by the New Zealand Government to collect taxes. You may incur tax if you hold a New Zealand bank account which earns interest or if you work in New Zealand. You will need to apply for an IRD tax number so that you are taxed at the correct rates. You can download an application form for an IRD tax number from ird.govt.nz or freephone 0800 227 774.

Compulsory Health and Travel Insurance

To complete your enrolment at The Learning Connexion, international students are required to have appropriate medical and travel insurance for the duration of their stay in New Zealand. These insurance policies must comply with the New Zealand Government Code of Practice for Pastoral Care of International Students which is part of Immigration New Zealand requirements. We are responsible for ensuring all international students have insurance at the time of enrolment. We have found that many insurance policies do not meet the Code of Practice criteria for insurance.

We highly recommend that you also purchase medical and travel insurance for your family if they travel to New Zealand with you. If you have children who are studying in New Zealand schools, it will be compulsory for them to have insurance cover.

Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students

To ensure that international students are well informed, safe and properly cared for, the New Zealand government has developed a code of practice for the recruitment, welfare and support of international students (The Code). The Learning Connexion Ltd. is a signatory to The Code, which provides a framework for a high standard of service.

Copies of The Code are available on request, or can be downloaded on the New Zealand Qualifications Authority web page:

<http://www.nzqa.govt.nz>

TLC Fees and Policies

To be granted a student visa, international students are required by Immigration New Zealand to pre-pay tuition fees in full to The Learning Connexion Ltd. These funds are held against the student's name until they complete their enrolment.

Withdrawals, refunds, student fee protection and student fee indemnification

Students who do not complete their enrolment at TLC must apply in writing to the International Student Advisor at The Learning Connexion Ltd. within the first 10 working days of the programme start date for a refund of their prepaid tuition fees (excluding administration charge). The refund will be calculated using the exchange rate applicable at the time of acceptance of the withdrawal. After the tenth working day (i.e. from working day 11), there is no refund.

International students wishing to withdraw from a programme after 10 working days must apply in writing to the TLC Academic Board. There are no fees refunded in this case. The Learning Connexion is obliged to notify Immigration New Zealand of any withdrawal.

The New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) requires that a private training establishment (PTE) has arrangements in place to protect student fees in a programme closure event. The Learning Connexion's Trust account also protects students' fees should a programme close. Programme closure events are events outside of a student's control, such as a cancellation of a programme, the withdrawal of accreditation or programme approval by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority. In the event of a programme closure, or school closure TLC will be responsible for covering the international student's administrative costs directly associated with the course closure and transfer to another programme provider within New Zealand.

The accounts department of The Learning Connexion will arrange for the refund - phone +64 04 5600260. The accounts department is the first point of contact for students should any programme closure event occur.

The Learning Connexion Ltd. adheres to section 236A of the Education Act 1989 and subsequent amendments. It has an approved Trust account for student fee protection and student fee indemnification (the remaining portion of a student's fee at any point of the programme). The Trust account holds sufficient funds to cover the full amount of student fees. It is administered by Mr Peter Nankivell of 'Count On Us Ltd'.

International students refund administration charge

An administration charge of 10% of total fees paid, including GST, is allowed to be withheld from the refund of prepaid tuition fees for students who decide not to enrol at The Learning Connexion prior to completing their enrolment, or during the withdrawal period. Where a refund administration fee is charged, the student will be given a refund letter including a breakdown of expenses.
