

The Learning Connexion Class Agreement

1. Look after yourself. Look after others. Look after the property.
2. Treat yourself with kindness and generosity. Take breaks as you need them. If you're getting stale, do something different. If you need support in any way, please ask.
3. Work with commitment and trust, even where things don't make sense or feel uncomfortable. Be aware that frustration always plays a part in good learning.
4. Be supportive.
5. If a problem arises, tell someone who can take action (and suggest a solution). If you don't communicate, it's your responsibility.
6. Focus on what works. Ask for what you WANT. Use your energy constructively. Avoid blame and justification.
7. Recognise that if you stay safe, nothing will ever change (learning demands risks and mistakes - view each mistake as a gift that will teach you something if you choose to own it and which will return if you reject it).
8. Work with patience, persistence and playfulness. Acknowledge that the only difference between success and failure is quitting. If you intend to quit, do it before the programme starts!
9. If you feel you're not coping at any stage, tell the tutor. Sometimes it's hard to tell if people are having difficulty and you should decide for yourself whether you need special help. Difficulties often signal that something useful is brewing!
10. Participate! The more you give, the more you will receive.
11. Be punctual.
12. Help to keep the studios clean and tidy!
